Hello Folks,

You know, dowsing is a very ancient, yet natural art. It has been reported that a cave in Libya contains a wall carving of a figure with dowsing rods surrounded by a group of people, as if they are following him/her. Anthropologists have estimated that this carving is likely to be 40,000 years old!

I often share this amazing finding with clients and students. Why did so many tribes study and follow animals and herds? Why did they pack up everything to track them when the tribal Shaman gave the sign? Because these animals were the original "dowers" who led the people to water and food!

I first learned pendulum dowsing from the adorable, infamous Hanna Kroeger in her health food store on the Pearl Street Mall in Boulder during the late 1970s. Dowsing has graced me as a "talent," and now later in my life I consider it one of my specialties.

You see, my own health "crisis" opened another door for my passionate search for the place where spirituality meets science. In 1990, while slowly recovering from an auto accident, I met Slim Spurling and Bill Reid. I sought them out to look at my property, as no one could figure out why my health wasn't improving. While they were dowsing and installing copper rods in my yard, I exclaimed to them that I MUST LEARN THIS SKILL! After the installation, which they called "Earth Acupuncture," I experienced a remarkable turnaround in healing from my injuries.

Within a couple years, I hosted Slim and Bill's dowsing training in Boulder. Now I teach Earth Acupuncture and pendulum dowsing workshops, along with providing a paid apprenticeship program in Earth Acupuncture.

As Cal Garrison wrote in Slim Spurling's Universe (Frederick, CO: IX-EL Publishing, 2004), p. 73:

Here's the problem: it appears that naturally-occurring geopathic stress has increased 300 or 400 percent over the last hundred years. Stress conditions are found above underground moving streams of water, certain mineral deposits, faults and rifts. . . . The unprecedented modern use and overuse of electricity has combined with these innate Earth frequencies to produce a grid that wraps around the planet like a web. These grid lines are called Hartmann lines after the good doctor [who discovered them] and they are detrimental to living organisms. . . .

. . . Hartmann lines cannot be found in the densest part of the Amazon Jungle. And while there are naturally-occurring forms of geopathic stress in remote areas, the absence of power lines, cell phone towers, electrical substations, telephone wires and the like make it impossible for Hartmann lines to form in those locations.

The good news is that geopathic stress and Hartmann lines can both be cured through dowsing and Earth Acupuncture!

WINTER SOLSTICE SPECIAL OFFER

Winter Solstice will soon be here, and my private practice has a special offer for you! Make an appointment with me to test your property for $99, weather permitting, from now through March 15, 2010. If you decide to have Earth Acupuncture or Egyptian rods installed, I will deduct your $99 payment from the total cost.

And if your property qualifies for a winter treatment, your cost will be discounted to 65 cents per square foot, rather than the usual $1 per square foot. Since we have had a hard freeze, we will be installing rods around your home right up against the foundation, where the earth is warm enough to sink the rods.

If you prefer the Egyptian rods, your $99 will also be deducted from the cost of our installing the eight rods around the foundation. In both installations we also mitigate your "personal" stress lines. The Egyptian method costs $200 per 2000 square feet in a residential setting. In a larger commercial setting the cost is $400 per 2000 square feet.

When your property is tested, you will also receive your own dowsing rods and a copy of the book Slim Spurling's Universe, by Cal Garrison. Once you see for yourself how much your property is stressed and how it can be cured, you will feel confident that we can create a healthier environment with this work.

Earth Acupuncture testimonials are abundant and the successes are quite astounding. What appears simple is profound in improving your health, prosperity, and peace of mind. And even though many people may be financially challenged in these economic times, we are having obvious positive results without receiving a stimulus package!

Please look over the schedules below for the upcoming workshops and share them with your family and friends.

I wish all the best to you and yours during this Holiday Season. May what really matters shower you with grace and gratitude.

Loving light and Laughter,

Karen

CINDY MORRIS, Priestess Astrologer, has been an astrologer for many centuries. This lifetime she has foregone the beard. Cindy is the author of Priestess Entrepreneur: Success is an Inside Job and her provocative antic-filled blog, Priestess Chronicles. Her dream is to be the astrologer following the weather people on the evening news. She translates Astrologese into easy-to-understand, practical information and guidance.

In the 1970s a new level of astrological interpretation - Evolutionary Astrology - was channeled through Jeffrey Wolf Green. This fascinating interpretation of an astrological chart focuses on the influence of Pluto, the Nodal Axis, and what he refers to as "skipped steps." Cindy will introduce Evolutionary Astrology and give a heads-up on what's happening in the cosmos: what every Earth inhabitant needs to know. For more information, please see divinesparkastrology.com

KAREN RICE KING, Certified Healing Arts Practitioner, Master Dowser, and Ordained Minister, has a double degree in Psychology and World Religion. Having taught courses in her field since the 1970s, she now directs a paid apprenticeship program in Dowsing and Earth Acupuncture. Karen is also a recognized teacher of Shamanic Practices and Healing. She practices remote healing, and sees clients in Lafayette, Boulder, and beyond.

In her presentation, Karen will talk about SOUL RETRIEVAL, lending some understanding to Soul Loss and how this process relates to the new Astrology. She will talk about ways to experience a Soul Retrieval, both in a more modern spiritual/psychic way, as well as the traditional Shamanic practices that our ancestors used. Karen currently teaches Soul Retrieval in her two-year, part-time residential program at Peaceful Valley Ranch. For more information, please see karenriceking.com.
