

Happy New Year! January, 2007

Now that we are through the Solstice, Hanukkah and Christmas, and the sun is shining once again, we turn our thoughts to the upcoming year. Many of you who I have spoken with are saying that you feel “lightness” in our atmosphere that you haven’t felt in quite a while. We did have a moon wobble in December that is impacting our Emotional Bodies – all of us! The planet literally vibrates on its axis and as WE are made up of over 70% water, much like our Mother Earth, we feel this gift more than we give it credit. This wobble in particular will affect us through the first couple of months here in 2007, and perhaps longer depending on your transits.

The meteor showers and solar flares in December challenged our electromagnetic fields in general. In time, our physical bodies will be impacted. So, if you have been thinking about coming in for a tune up from my practice; take 25% off through January either in the home office or Boulder on a Saturday.

I used to HATE this time of year. Losing my beloved father at Solstice in 1979, after his decade long battle with cancer and heart disease, left me an open wound. So, when I had my first SOUL RETRIEVAL and got my “pieces” back, I made peace with this process.

“HATE” isn’t really a word I choose to use any longer. It’s been challenging with socio-economic and political issues looming. Instead, I’m engulfed with gratitude for all that is right in my world.

For instance: Did you know that because of our work with the Marine Conservancy, that George W. Bush has signed into law that the western Hawaiian Islands now comprise the world’s largest marine park. And the lands belong to the native Indigenous people. Some research scientists will have limited access to all these waters. What a victory!

My Earth Acupuncture Apprenticeship program is doing great!! A gal in Steamboat Springs has been doing her FREE jobs, helping folks with medical AND emotional challenges. In Aspen, Colorado an osteopath hit the ground running with his work and I feel so glad our workshop hostess got her home done as she courageously is undertaking treatment for breast cancer. One "graduate" in Boulder is combining either the Earth Acupuncture or Egyptian Method with HOUSE HEALING, as he now teaches at Psychic Horizons. In March, I will be presenting Earth Acupuncture at the Medicine for the Earth Reunion in Santa Fe. A current apprentice, who is an Astrologer and Feng Shui Practitioner, will accompany me to the conference and we will be working in Santa Fe after the conference. For those of you who had not had the pleasure yet, of experiencing the Medicine for the Earth work, I have books on sale for $14.00 plus shipping and handling! This year, be looking for at least one gathering in Colorado, which I will be facilitating. Also, we are currently taking applications for the HOST HOME for the Earth Acupuncture!

To remind you the HOST HOME is done for FREE, a minimum of $1,000.00 savings. The host/hostess can take the workshop for free = $300.00 value! A great host would be someone who has ANY health/wealth or emotional/spiritual challenges. I'd like to work with someone who will provide lunches and snacks and who can afford to kick-in a little to the advertising and promotion. Think about it, please and have your friend or family call me. There will be at least one workshop on the front range in 2007.

My colleague and friend, Sandra Ingerman in her book Medicine for the Earth maps out her tried and true steps for us to follow:

- INTENTION: If you hold the intention that you are grateful, your personal world and the world you live in will transform in a beautiful way.
- LOVE: Appreciation is a state of love. Love creates transmutations (change).
- HARMONY: When you are in the state appreciation, you move into harmony with yourself and the divine forces in and around you.
- UNION: Appreciation brings you to a state of union with the source of all of life. Where there is union, there is transmutation.
- FOCUS: Holding your intention to be in a state of constant appreciation takes focusing on your vision.
- CONCENTRATE: You must be able to concentrate on the focus of your intention.
- IMAGINATION: You must be able to imagine yourself in a place of appreciation for everything and imagine the transformation that can occur by embodying this state of being.

Let me know if these “ideas” touch you and you are READY to partake in a Medicine for the Earth gathering.

My collaboration with Roxanne Roberts, a fellow Coloradoan who completed the Teacher Training in CORE SHAMANISM with me last September is providing a new hosting opportunity. We will be speaking soon on the future visit of Rainbow Eagle to Northern Colorado. Having spent so much of my personal practice with the Natives of our lands, to work with Rainbow Eagle will be a true honor. He is a SEVENTH FIRE PEACE SHIELD TEACHER. It is time that these ancient teachings are to be given to ANYONE who is guided to receive them. As he writes in his book, “This is a critical time for all humankind as well as for all our relations in the natural world.”

On page 89, he states: “In the Peace Shield teaching the most important spiritual development began in the womb, where we felt surrounded by nurturing water. The color of the West side of the Peace Shield is black. It holds the memory and blessing of our first journey with our biological mother; the first place of impact upon our personal spirituality.”

A Mayan friend has asked me “Karen, have you felt the darkness we have been in? In my culture, 2006 was the last year for this darkness. Those of us who have done our work will be flying into the light in 2007. How you say? Flown?” I say the launch is here!

Here’s and cheers to YOUR launching! If there is ANY way I may be of service, please let me know. I do not turn away ANYONE from my practice, particularly when they are referred by any of you! And please remember that you receive a half hour of free services from my work, which can be equated to $60, for every referral who becomes a client. Thank you all!

Light, Laughter and Loads of Love!
