April 2005

HAPPY SPRING, ALL!

FYI: UNTIL 1752, The U.S. celebrated the New Year at the Vernal Equinox.

We are updating the website in good time, but the backside of this letter will give you all the updated workshops. (www.KarenRiceKing.com)

I would just like to stress that the Earth Acupuncture and Dowsing Workshop will be taught only one time a year on the front range of Colorado, unless of course there is more demand for it. This year we will be hosted in the lovely home of Kyle Liston, who owns Across the Bridge Acupuncture Clinic in Louisville. She is a fantastic practitioner, specializing in fertility issues. But believe me, she can handle it all! Her home is conveniently located off SH 287 and Arapahoe Road (SH 7). Please call her for directions after registration, WHICH ENDS MAY 1, 2005.

I'm more excited than ever to share this experience with you. In speaking to so many of you recently, I hear how you just don't "trust" muscle testing/reflexology or dowsing. This workshop will change your mind! One of the books you may choose as part of your take-home package, is The Dowsing Charts, by Dale Olson. This laminated workbook has charts beyond your imagination - good enough for any practitioner to integrate into their work with clients or mom to use at home.

I really would love to see Medicine for the Earth, the weekend retreat workshop, launched by fall 2005. But as I've said, in order to take this workshop, you need to qualify your journeying experience with me either through workshops or private session. Also, I'm working on partnering with another trained teacher and I will be locating the retreat center who can accommodate us.

There has been a request for me to talk further about the common thread we have with Ancestors, that I mentioned in my last letter. Carl Jung taught me that even if you do not believe in past lives, believe in this: All of time, the history of species and humans, is in our cellular memory - and our DNA.

So, when the Tsunami came, or the recent 9.+ earthquake in Indonesia, why didn't the humans recognize the signs? The animals fled the area - some, hours before the Tsunami.

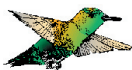

We, like the Ancestors, have signs and omens every day in our lives. Who was it that said, "God was speaking to me, but I wasn't listening?"

Also, a reminder from my web designer Teri Robnett of Whole Brain Technologies: the egg and bunny at Easter didn't come from the "Church." It is part of our Pagan heritage - again, thank you, Ancestors.

Let me know if you can join me for some sunset drumming, either at the full or new moon, somewhere in open space monthly!

Listen to the Birds Today!

What a weekend we have planned for you! For the cost of the workshop we will send you home with a pendulum, compass, two books, training manual, dowsing rods and a bundle of rods to do your own home. Organic meals and snacks will be provided both days. You will gain experience in dowsing and learn to use a pendulum to answer questions for someone else. We will learn to journey to the Devic Realm and speak to the Spirit of this Home. By the end of the weekend, you will be trained in diagnosing the negative stress lines on properties. Shamanism is an ancient practice which appreciates nature and utilizes the art of drumming, song and dance to raise the Spirits. Once focused, this energy can be used to heal all our wounds. You will journey with your Power Animal and your Guides and Teachers. The beauty of this workshop is that you will walk away with having experienced Divine Contact. You'll also go home with a copy of the book and CD by this title, by Sandra Ingerman.
